THE FEELING KOREA

2016 SUMMER / WINTER PROGRAM

CHONBUK NATIONAL UNIVERSITY

Exciting Korean Language and Culture Experience program

What is 'The Feeling Korea'?

Korea´s traditional cultural heritage is best preserved in Jeonju where Chonbuk National University (CBNU) is located. The Korean culture has now been wildly shared with the world through The Feeling Korea Program of CBNU since 2002. Not only does this program provide an excellent education of Korean language by distinguished teachers but also takes full advantage of the excellent local Korean cultural opportunities. The participants can also experience a variety of cultural experiences such as Taekwondo and traditional music with volunteers who are responsible for interpreting and guiding foreign participants, making possible to create a global mindset. Participants can experience the essence of traditional and modern Korea in a short period of time.

The Feeling Korea Special Features

F Field Trip

E Experience

E Exchange

L Language

Field trip "Let's go on a trip"

In order to have a better understanding of Korea, there are many regions you can visit. In Seoul, Busan and other cities, there are many different Korean cultures you can experience.

Experience "Experiencing Korean Culture in a short time"

Through different cultural experience activities, you can see and learn in a fast and fun way about korean culture. From traditional to modern cultural experiences, participants will touch and feel the Korean culture itself.

YOU WILL FEEL TRUE KOREA IN THE FEELING KOREA PROGRAM !

Exchange "We are all friends"

CBNU students not only help through volunteering work and interpretation during the cultural experience activities but also help participants to easily adapt to daily life and university matters in CBNU. Participants from all around the world spend time together as one team during two weeks, becoming friends beyond borders.

Language "You can now speak Korean!"

In a small group of 15~20 students, basic conversation classes are given in order to make students feel great satisfaction while living in Korea. After just few days, students won't feel uncomfortable at the moment to order in a coffee shop or while shopping.

Welcome to CBNU

Chonbuk National University(CBNU) was the first national university established in the southern region and has led regional and national development as a global prestigious university. CBNU has 5 campuses and its main campus is located in the most Korean-like city, Jeonju. Chonbuk National University has been ranked 1st in a 2015 evaluation conducted by a national media company as the most fast-developed university in South Korea in the past 20 years. CBNU's performances in education and research, employment and internationalization stand out as well. There are 32,300 students studying in CBNU and it includes about 1,000 international students from 46 countries.

Location

Jeonju, 240km(144miles) south of Seoul, is the capital city of the Jeollabuk-do. The city is known for its history and artistic traditions.

When you arrive at Inchen International Airport, the most convenient way to get to Jeonju is to take the Airport Limousine Bus. It takes 90 minutes from Seoul to Jeonju by KTX train.
