

EC News

1. Going abroad to learn – the Commission's Green Paper on learning mobility for young people.

On 8 July 2009 the European Commission published a Green Paper on "Promoting the learning mobility of young people". The aim is to open up a debate on how best to boost the opportunities for young people in Europe to develop their knowledge and skills by spending time abroad.

For more information apply to:

http://ec.europa.eu/education/focus/focus363_en.htm

2. How can tax policy contribute to making lifelong learning a reality?

Registration is now open for an international conference on tax incentives for education and training. The first EU conference on this issue will provide innovative perspectives on the trends and developments in tax incentives used by governments to promote education and training. The conference will take place in Brussels on 22 September 2009.

For more information apply to:

http://ec.europa.eu/education/news/news1524_en.htm