

Biotechnology Center

Scientific Report

2017B

I. 1. Scientific-Research Works Planned and Implemented in 2017 Funded by the State Budget of Georgia

№	Planned and Implemented work with the indication of scientific field and direction	Work Supervisor	Work Performers
1	2	3	4
1	Update and preservation of the collection of virus free tube potato plants and creation of in vitro walnut tube plants, agricultural	M.Maia Kukhaleishvili Academic Doctor of Ecology, Acting Director of Biotechnology Center	Iveta Megrelishvili, senior scientific worker, Ekaterine Bulauri, scientific worker, Tamar Shapatava, scientific worker, Tamar Chipashvili, scientific worker, Guliko Dvali, senior scientific worker, Leila Zvidadze, scientific worker, Naili Lomtadze, scientific worker

I. 2

№	Planned and Implemented work with the indication of scientific field and direction	Work Supervisor	Work Performers
1	2	3	4
1	Healing, aromatic, honey spice and innovative technologies of monitoring, conservation and cultivation and usage of poisonous plant diversity in Georgia	Tamar Kacharava Main scientific worker of GTU Biotechnology Center , PhD of Agricultural Sciences	GTU doctoral students: Dinara Devadze, Tinatin Epatashvili Samtskhe-Javakheti State University doctoral student Mzia Lobzhanidze, scientific worker Maia Kobakhidze მასი კობახიძე