

„History Verticals”

International scientific magazine aims to publish scientific articles by Georgian and foreign professors, graduates and doctoral students concerning history, politics, diplomacy, international relations, international law, art, culture, sociology, economy, history, psychology, philosophy, ethnology and other topics.

The magazine was founded in 1991 under Zviad Gamsakhurdia's initiative. Its publication has been revived since 2002 by the Faculty of Humanitarian-Technical studies of GTU.

Chief Editor: Igor Kveselava - Tel .: 599 24 64 74; e-mail: kveselava31@mail.ru

Responsible Person: Edisher Gvenetadze - Tel: 599 24 56 41; Email Mail: e.gvenetadze@mail.ru

Members of the magazine editorial board from Georgia:

C. Abesadze, M. Amirgulashvili, a. Burjaliani, N. Bakhsoliani, J. Gakhokidze, I. Gabisonia, O. Gogiashvili, I. Kalandia, Z. Kvetenadze, H. KutuBidze, R. Mishveladze, S. Sigua, A. Sichinvna, A. Songulashvili, K. Kokrashvili, G. Korganashvili, F. Shubitidze, S. Tsintsadze, B. Tskhadadze, S. Khizanishvili, Iv. Jagodnishvili.

Foreign Bureau: Rudymer Adresen (Germany), Hirodak Maida (Japan), Joonji Itto (Japan), François Tommy (France), Steven Jones (United States), Dylver Haley (Turkey).

The magazine is a printed type, published on a quarterly basis, 100 copies;

ISSN 1512 4959 – since 2002.

Distribution:

- The journal is delivered to the Library of the Technical University of Georgia and the National Library of the Parliament of Georgia.
- Online version of the magazine is shared to the web of the public library.
- Since 2002, the magazine has signed a contract on cooperation with Russian Academy of Sciences, Scientific Information Institute of Public Science.