

Georgian Technical University

Akaki Tsereteli State University

Zugdidi Shota Meskhia State Teaching University

Freedom, Justice, The Rule of Law

Freiheit, Gerechtigkeit, Rechtsstaatlichkeit

10 October

15:00 – Prof. Andreas Arndt, Humboldt University Berlin, Freedom and Liberation. On the history of freedom consciousness

15:30 – Prof. Jure Zovko, Zadar University, The Closing of European Mind. The End of Freedom?

16:00 – Daviti Galashvili (PhD Student), Georgian Technical University, Body Politics by Spinoza

Coffee Break

17:00 – Dr. Ketevan Rcheulishvili, Georgian Technical University, The role of ecclesiastical law in the development of Georgian legal thought

17:30 – Giorgi Kashibadze (PhD Student), Georgian Technical University, Freedom and religiosity in the constitutional state with the rule of law and the authoritarian state

18:00 – Prof. Irakli Taboridze, Zugdidi Shota Meskhia State Teaching University, Cicero and his philosophical ideas on human dignity, the state and law.

11 October

10:00 – Prof. Mamuka Beriashvili, Georgian Technical University, Historical-philosophical foundations of justice and freedom

10:30 – Prof. Theo Kobusch, Bonn University, Advancement in the consciousness of freedom

11:00 – Prof. Niklaus Largier, Berkley University, Radical Freedom: The idea of the “Beautiful Soul”

11:30 – Dr. Mariam Khazaradze, Georgian Technical University, The Recognition and the conception of Justice

Coffee Break

12:30 – Prof. Agnieszka Nogal, Warsaw University, Autonomy is not enough. Return of the idea of practical rationality

13:00 – Prof. Zdzisław Krasnodębski, University of Bremen, Rule of Law without State and Democracy? On the European Union's problems with the rule of law.

13:30 – Prof. George Gvartadze, Akaki Tsereteli State university, Co-Autor: Prof. Aza Iphshiradze, Kutaisi University, Strong and autonomous local self-government as the foundation of legal statehood